

About public disclosure records requests

Washington State law RCW 42.56 requires all agencies to respond to requests for public records in a timely manner and in an acceptable way. Records that are created by the department during the course of business are considered public records. The term "public records (RCW 42.56.010\(3\))" applies to any record, no matter the media, including electronic.

A request should contain the following information:

- Name, address and telephone number or email address of the person requesting the record
- Date on which the request is being made
- Description of the record(s) requested

How to request records

To obtain public records from the Washington State Potato Commission you can submit your request in one of these ways:

1. Email: Suzy Johnson, Public Records Officer – Email me
2. Mail to:

Washington State Potato Commission

Attn: Public Records Officer

108 S Interlake Road

Moses Lake, WA 98837

How we'll respond to your request

Within 5 business days of receiving the request, as required by law, the Governor's Office will respond in one of the following ways:

1. Provide the record(s); or
2. Make a portion of the records available in installments; or
3. Acknowledge your request and give you a reasonable estimate of how long it will take to respond; or
4. Ask for clarification if the request is unclear; or
5. Deny the request in writing, stating the reasons for the denial (this could also include a denial of part of your request and granting the remainder). By statute, RCW 42.56.520, the department must cite the specific exemption that applies.
